

We pray that God's Spirit continues to flow through the worldwide Church, communicating the Gospel with words and deeds, bringing new believers into Christ's family. We pray that throughout society, advocates for justice are heard; that truth, honesty and integrity prevail, and that all people are treated fairly. We pray for our community and especially for those who bring the light of hope to any who are facing difficult times. We pray for all those who have asked for our prayers at this time naming before you: Jennifer, Sally, Nicky, Simon, Eddie, Peter, Tessa, Dan, Claire, Nick, Chris, Shirley, Michael, James, Jackie, Jane, Anne, Mai, Jonny and David. We also lift to you those whose names are on our prayer board. We pray for all who are grieving the loss of someone they love; that the Spirit will comfort them with the reassurance of new beginnings. We pray for those who are celebrating new beginnings and especially those who will be married in our churches this year. We pray for Chloe and Daniel in their final preparations for their wedding next Sunday and for Joshua and Annabelle, Jennie and Ben, and Holly and Tom marrying later this year.

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind....divided tongues, as of fire appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit.

Acts 2. 1.
