Today we will be gathering to worship the God of all creation, to acknowledge God's sovereignty, and to remind ourselves that all authority is under God. We hear in scripture how Jesus reveals his divinity as he commands the elements. And we recommit ourselves to mindful responsibility in all our actions as stewards of God's creation. We bring before God, the creator of all things, the concerns of our lives, our communities and our world. We pray for those in positions of authority, that they may understand with humility that their authority is under God. Let us pray for those who speak truth to power, even when it costs them their livelihoods, their reputations or even their lives. Let us pray that we may seek out opportunities to take our part in the stewardship of God's creation. Lord we pray for those battling with sickness and ill health, for those facing the hard future of treatment and hospital visits. Give them and us the courage to face adversity knowing that you walk beside us. Pour your peace into their lives. Help them to have confidence in you and to put their faith and trust in you. We name before you today: Jennifer, Sally, Nicky, Simon, Eddie, Tessa, Dan, Claire, Peter, Nick, Chris, Shirley, Michael, Jane, Anne, Jonny, David, Stephen and Sue. We also lift to you those whose names are on our prayer board. We pray for all who have died; that, surrounded by the light of Christ, they may find rest from their labour. We especially pray for the family and friends of Veronica Forsyth, Kendon Barnes and Colin Grundy who have died recently.
