

Let us join today with the angels round the heavenly throne as we worship Christ the King. So let us bring our prayers to the throne of grace, trusting in God's power to transform our world and our lives. We pray for the church and for the world, for our families and communities and we pray for those in particular need. May they know the love of Christ in their hearts and lives. We pray especially today for Jennifer, Nicky, Tessa, Claire, Nick, David, George, Graham, Rebecca, Philomena and Clare. We pray for those who have recently died and we remember those we have loved and lost. May we with them, come at last to the kingdom where Christ reigns with love. We especially remember Ruby Sawyers who recently died and loved the church at Capel.

Women of the Nativity - an Advent and Christmas Study

Following our Lent course on prayer earlier in the year we plan to meet again to study a new book 'Women of the Nativity' written by Paula Gooder and illustrated by Ally Barrett. We will begin this next Tuesday 26th November at 3pm but anyone unable to make one of the Tuesdays can easily catch up! We will once again be kindly hosted by Mairi Ingliss Jones at her home at 1 Old Barn Drive Capel.

The Capel Christmas Fair committee would like to thank everyone who supported our Fair on Saturday 16th. We had 35 stalls there and more outside than we have had before. Everything went smoothly and we have a lot of very happy stallholders again who already want to book for next year! But a huge thanks must go to our wonderful team of volunteers who gave up their time to set up, do duties at the Fair and then dismantle it all afterwards too! We simply couldn't do it without them! We hope to release the final figure that we raised in the next few days! Thank you again for your support Suzanne, Helen & Kerena"

Sunday 15th December at 4pm - 9 lessons and carols

Our Parish Christmas 9 Lessons and Carols will be a little different this year as we are going to be joined by some staff and children from Scott Broadwood School who will be taking part. We begin at a new earlier time - 4pm and promise you will enjoy traditional and more contemporary Christmas carols and music all held together by the telling of the Christmas story. Put it in your diaries now! Joy's famous mince pies and mulled wine will be on offer after the service.
