Today we celebrate both All Saints Day and All Souls Day. All Saints Day was the 1st of November and All Souls the 2nd so we celebrate both wonderful occasions today! So today we rejoice that we are part of the glorious company of saints in Christ down the ages and across the world. We bring to mind those Christians who have shone with the light of Christ, thanking God that they encourage us in faith. The God who calls is also the one who listens to us in compassion and acts for our good and God's glory. Let us bring the concerns of our hearts before God, praying for our world, for the relief of suffering through hunger, poverty and especially conflict. We pray for those grieving a loss of a loved one, relationship, health or hope - asking the God of comfort to wipe away tears. We pray especially today for Jennifer, Sally, Nicky, Simon, Eddie, Tessa, Claire, Nick, Chris, Shirley, Jane, Anne, Jonny, David, Rev Jo, George, Graham and Rebecca.

It is lovely to welcome Graham Everness back to our parish today following a Summer extended break. Graham will be taking our Ockley Matins service this morning and then preaching at Capel at our Family Communion. Welcome back Graham!

All Souls Service for the Bereaved - today 3pm at Capel
Do join us for our annual service where we gather to remember those who are no longer with us. The service will be followed by Church teas.

Capel Christmas Fair - If you are able to spare an hour on the day its not too late to volunteer but please contact Suzanne directly on 01306 711449 or slc@ansford.me.uk. Thank you to those who have already volunteered and we hope that lots of you will be able to come along and enjoy the Fair and all it's stalls and refreshments next Saturday 16th November 12-4!

Murder Mysteries have been solved!
We are pleased to say all mysteries have been solved and what an outstanding success this year's production 'Where there's a Will' has been. Huge thanks to all who have been involved over many weeks, our cast - 17 this year, our lighting and sounds man, Alan Hardy, Joy and Helen for weekly refreshments, Viv Taylor for stage manager, Yvonne Featherstone for her assistance and of course Sylvie Beckett as Director!! For our performance nights we especially want to thank all those who served and prepared the delicious food at Ockley and Capel. And in particular those who do the washing and clearing away. It is a momentous task we know. This now annual production is something which brings church and village communities together in a unique way as well as being one of our major
