

We gather to worship God on this day when many countries around the world remember those who have died in defence of the kingdom values of peace and justice. We remember too, all those whose lives are affected by war and conflict today.

God has promised to hear us when we pray in faith, so let us give thanks for that blessing among many, and pray for all in need. We give thanks for all who are called to spread the good news of the kingdom, and pray that we may have courage and confidence to join that mission. We give thanks for those who are called to bring peace and justice to this world, as we pray for national governments and international organisations. We give thanks for those who are called to help others, for all healthcare workers and those in the emergency services, and we pray for the people they help. We give thanks for members of the armed services, in conflict situations and peacekeeping missions, and we pray for their families and loved ones. As we remember the fallen, we commend to God all those who have been called to the eternal kingdom, where peace will be restored. In our own community, we pray for those who have asked for our prayers: Jennifer, Sally, Nicky, Simon, Eddie, Tessa, Claire, Nick, David, George, Graham, Rebecca and Philomena. We pray for God's healing hand to be upon these, those on our prayer board and any others we have on our hearts and minds today.
